Introduction

With the approval of the Ministry of Education under the Private University Act of 1992 and its amendment in 1998, the Daffodil International University (DIU) came into existence on 24th January 2002. The fruit of prime initiative of the country's leading conglomerate Daffodil Group is Daffodil International University. This is a social commitment of Daffodil Group to the nation for promoting better education to meet the changing needs of the society in the 21st century.

About the Department

The Department of Law of this University includes scholars, teachers, students, administrators, staffs, caretakers and others whose combined efforts are to serve society as a center for the humanistic education in law, for legal research and for the provision of services which enhance the quality of life and access to justice, and in particular:

1. To study the nature and social function of legal institutions and to provide a general overview of the legal system in the larger social, economic and political context of society;
2. To foster study and research into legal theory and values;
3. To examine the relationship between theory and practice;
4. To encourage and support, in particular, scholarly endeavor in access to justice and in all legal issues;
5. To enhance access to justice through a broad and progressive admissions policy which will focus upon the personal attributes of the individual applicant including women and those who are socially or economically disadvantaged.
